John Curtis, of Giving Gardens spoke to the board about the community garden the Roseville Community organization proposed at the February meeting. He gave more detail as to what is involved as far as size, contents and volunteers needed to start the garden. Clerk Hayes read the email from RMA regarding insurance coverage for liability. Proof of liability insurance falls on the Giving Gardens program with the village listed as secondary. Mr. Curtis was asked to come back to the April meeting with the insurance information and the board will then make the decision whether or not to pursue the garden behind the community center.

Attorney Youngquist reported he has a status report in court on Wednesday the 4th for the Swearingen and Dix properties. The Mustread trial will be forthcoming.

Gooding moved to spend up to $500 for flowers for the planters uptown 2nd by Lybarger. Call vote: Barry-yes, Casteel-yes, Gooding-yes, Kirby-yes, Lybarger-yes. Motion carried. Clerk Hayes will get the flowers ordered for the spring. Hayes will also follow up with Carol Shaw from the Roseville Community Foundation about planting some bulbs in the planters that will come up each year to alleviate some of the maintenance of the planters every year. Ideas for getting the community involved in helping with the planters included having residents "adopt" a planter and they would be responsible for planting and watering that particular planter and possibly having an occasional contest for best decorated planter.

Motion to sell the property at 165 E. Broadway for at least $3500 was made by Kirby, 2nd by Casteel. Motion carried. Attorney Youngquist will post the call for bids for 3 weeks before the board can sell the property.

The board reviewed the request to amend the liquor license ordinance to eliminate the requirement to live within the village limits. After lengthy discussion, it was decided that the ordinance will remain as is. President Taflinger will contact the persons requesting the change to inform them of the decision.
